

TEST 11

TASK 1 SPELLING	TASK 2 PUNCTUATION/CAPITILIZATION	TASK 3 GRAMMAR
1. significance	7. ' Jack	13. between
2. camouflage	8. Beanstalk ' ?	14. their
3. predators	9. curious ,	15. Firstly
4. equipped	10. hesitation ,	16. larger
5. ability	11. Giant 's	17. has
6. allows	12. had !	18. live

TASK 4

19. Zeus had given Epimetheus the task of designing the natural world.
20. Two characteristics were:
  - (i) capacity for deep emotions
  - (ii) mastery over language.
  - (iii) gifts of fine craftsmanship.
21. enigma – mysterious, puzzling .
disability – having two parts or aspects.
22. 'A force beyond his control' she could not control herself as she was tempted to open the box.
23. The box was used to hold Monstrous creatures and forces of evil and suffering.
24. No. I do not think is Pandora was filled with curiosity and could not help herself but to open the box. She was given the virtue of curiosity and tempted by a 'force beyond her control.'
25. Pandora became obsessed and a force beyond her control summoned her to open it just a crack to satisfy her curiosity.
26. In Paragraph 9 Pandora was filled with terror and dread as the monsters escaped whereas in Paragraph11, she felt at ease and contented that Hope was released to temper the effects of the evil she released.
27. The light was Hope. It eased Pandora pain as it washed over her knowing it would temper the effects of the evil released.
28. We may be curious to investigate everything around us, but there are somethings best left (alone) unsolved.

TASK 5

29. twittered – utter foolishly.
weary – tired.
30. The sense of sound (hearing).
“And I sung and seeing”.
31. Personification – The speaking toad.
Imagery - Closing his eyes and singing soft and low.
- But the seen – it blazed away.
Teacher’s Discretion.
32. The toad is determined, relentless, not giving up.
He hollered the entire morning till noon, slept, got up and hollered again till his lungs nearly burst.
33. The voice is the Rain.
34. He was tired of hollering and terribly disappointed that rain had not fallen.
35. Stanza – The toad hollered when he was tired and depressed whereas stanza 4 – He was excited that the rain was coming, even though she promised to fall once he shuts up.
36. One of frustration, tired of the toad’s constant croaking as he was at it all day, informing everyone that it will rain.
37. People driving past would stop to hear him, then they too would give up (sign) because of the lack of rain.
38. The rain fell in frustration and defeat since the toad had hollered at it for the entire day. - -
- Student’s response.

TASK 6

39. To inform users of the elevator the rules of use during Covid-19.
40. (i) Keep 2 metres apart.
(ii) No more than three people are allowed at one time in the elevator.
41. Respiratory virus – the virus which affects the respiratory (lung)tract.
Social Distancing – keeping 2 metres apart when communicating.
42. Just outside the elevator to inform people waiting that only three people may enter.
43. Drawings explain the actions/directions expected to be followed by users of the elevators to notice and understand what is required much easier.